Notice of Vacancy – Board of Directors, Place 3

Central Appraisal District of Johnson County

The Central Appraisal District of Johnson County (Johnson CAD) announces a vacancy for Place 3 on its Board of Directors, an elected position representing the residents of Johnson County.

Pursuant to Texas Tax Code §6.0301, the Board of Directors is responsible for appointing a qualified individual to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the unexpired term.

Eligibility Requirements

Individuals interested in serving must meet the qualifications established by the Texas Property Tax Code, including:

- Being a resident of Johnson County for at least two years immediately preceding the date of appointment.
- Meeting all applicable eligibility requirements for service on the Board of Directors.
- Not being subject to any statutory disqualification or conflict of interest.

Responsibilities of the Board

The Board of Directors provides governance and administrative oversight of Johnson CAD. Responsibilities include adopting the District's annual budget, establishing policies, and appointing the Chief Appraiser.

The Board does not determine individual property values or resolve property tax protests.

Expression of Interest

Johnson County residents interested in being considered for appointment to Place 3 are encouraged to submit a letter of interest and a brief summary of their qualifications.

Submission Deadline: November 4, 2026
